

Introducing the LifeWorks Financial Assessment Tool!

Wonder where all your money is going? Or whether you're saving enough for the future? LifeWorks can help you find answers to these and other questions!

Our new Financial Assessment tool is an easy way to assess your financial well-being. It's confidential, takes only minutes to complete, and provides you with immediate results and resources to help you achieve financial wellness.

Financial Assessment

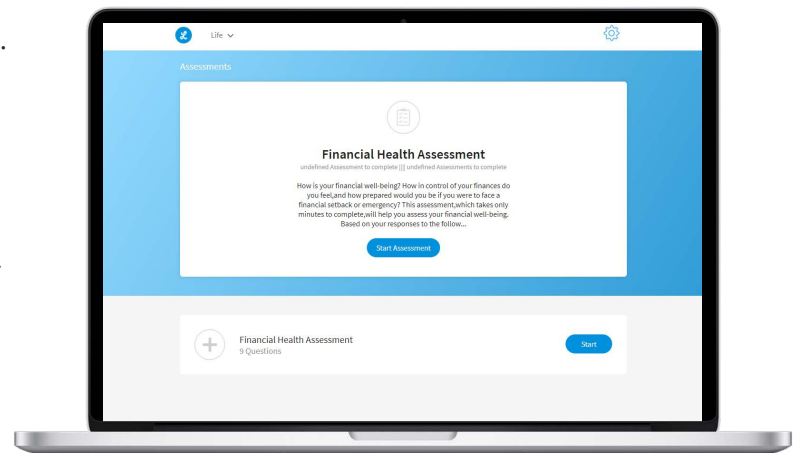

Take a couple of minutes to answer a brief series of general questions about budgeting and saving, debt and financial worry. The questions are designed to help you evaluate your financial picture.

Tools & resources customized for you

Once you've completed the assessment, the tool generates helpful resources and recommendations tailored specifically for you, based on your responses to the set of questions.

Don't wait another minute! LifeWorks can help you achieve financial well-being.

To take the financial assessment now, go to "Assessments" under the "Life" header on the LifeWorks platform.
